

The recent weekends have broken a record of the visitors' attendance for the Konchalovsky Exhibition at the Tretyakov Gallery. The continual queue for a Russian artist takes place in the modern Gallery's history for the first time. Our Foundation is grateful to all the lovers of the Russian art!

